When registering, please provide the case number or topic you wish to address and state whether you will attend in person or remotely.

The public comment period lasts up to 45 minutes, with 15 minutes reserved for public officials and 30 minutes for members of the general public. Speakers are called in the order they signed up, and the Commission will make every effort to balance time between in-person and remote participants. The subject matter of public comments shall be relevant to matters within the Commission's jurisdiction. Public comment will not be permitted on pending rulemaking proceedings if the public comment period in those proceedings has closed. Public comment by parties to a proceeding or adjudication pending before the Commission will not be permitted where the comment concerns such proceeding. The Chair shall retain the right to stop any speaker who raises an issue that is not under the Commission's jurisdiction or is in violation of the restrictions above.

The Commission will listen to all comments but will not respond to specific issues raised, although Commissioners may ask brief clarifying questions. All participants are expected to maintain respectful conduct, including not using profane or vulgar language or gestures. Disruptions or interruptions are not permitted, and the Commission may remove anyone who does not follow these rules.
