At any time during the Open Meeting the Commission may close the meeting to the public to discuss matters not subject to the New Mexico Open Meetings Act. The Commission may revise the order of the agenda items considered at this Open Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that the Commission may request that any party answer clarifying questions or provide an oral argument with respect to any matter on the agenda. If the Commission makes such a request, any party present at the meeting, either in person or by telephone, shall have an equal opportunity to respond to such questions or argument. In the event a party whose case is on the agenda chooses not to appear, the absence of that party shall not cause such discussion or argument to become ex-parte communications.

PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

If you are an individual with a disability who is in need of a reader, amplifier, qualified sign language interpreter, or any other form of auxiliary aid or service to attend or participate in the hearing or meeting, or for a summary or other type of accessible format of public documents, please contact the Office of Director of Administrative Services of the Commission at (505) 827-8019 as soon as possible prior to the meeting.

PUBLIC COMMENT

At its discretion, the Committee may allow public comment at open meetings. To participate in public comment at a New Mexico Public Regulation Commission open meeting, you must sign up by emailing public.comment@prc.nm.gov or calling 505-490-7910 as soon as possible before the meeting starts. When registering, please state whether you will attend in person or remotely.

The public comment period lasts up to 45 minutes, with 15 minutes reserved for public officials and 30 minutes for members of the general public. Speakers are called in the order they signed up, and the Committee will make every effort to balance time between in-person and remote participants. Those who wish to make comment but have not signed up in advance will be taken as time allows. Each speaker is allotted up to two minutes unless additional time is granted.

The subject matter of public comments shall be relevant to matters within the Committee's jurisdiction. Public comment will not be permitted on pending rulemaking proceedings if the public comment period in those proceedings has closed. Public comment by parties to a proceeding or adjudication pending before the Commission will not be permitted where the comment concerns such proceeding. The Chair shall retain the right to stop any speaker who raises an issue that is not under the Committee's jurisdiction or is in violation of the restrictions above.

The Committee will listen to all comments but will not respond to specific issues raised, although Committee members may ask brief clarifying questions. All participants are expected to maintain respectful conduct, including not using profane or vulgar language or gestures. Disruptions or interruptions are not permitted, and the Committee may remove anyone who does not follow these rules.
